

Vegas Nights

Verse 1

The lights of Vegas filled the sky,
The King returned and aimed so high.
A roaring crowd, a brand-new start,
Still carrying music in his heart.

Chorus

Vegas nights, shining bright,
The King is back beneath the lights.
Every song, every stage,
Writing history page by page.

Verse 2

Suspicious Minds filled every hall,
The people answered every call.
A thousand voices sang along,
Together living every song.

Chorus

Vegas nights, shining bright,
The King is back beneath the lights.
Every song, every stage,
Writing history page by page.

Verse 3

The jumpsuit white, the cape unfurled,
A living legend for the world.
Every night another show,
Another memory people know.

Outro

Vegas lights may fade away,
But those songs still live today.

Vegas lights may fade away,
But those songs still live today.
